THE OLMEC COLOSSAL HEADS

ARCHAEODAY is an opportunity to learn about the multi-faceted field of archaeology. Whether you are a seasoned historian or just curious about how people lived long ago, here is your chance to get hands-on skills, ask questions, and connect with local and esteemed archaeologists.

DR. EDWIN BARNHART, director of the Maya Exploration Center, has over thirty-five years of experience in Central, South, and North America as an archaeologist, an explorer, and an instructor. He has appeared in over a dozen documentaries and given presentations all over the world.

ARCHAEODAY MINI CONFERENCE

9-11:30 AM | ISU ALUMNI CENTER

- Stories from the field
- Presentations by archaeologists
- Hands on activities with real ancient artifacts
- And more!

ROOTS OF INGENUITY: AGRICULTURAL SYSTEMS OF THE ANCIENT AMERICAS

A LECTURE BY ARCHAEOLOGIST DR. ED BARNHART | 6:30 P.M. | NOVEMBER 2026 | ISU ALUMNI CENTER
